night hardly clarifies who the local four-A wrestling kings are. Brooke, with two champions in 105-pound Mike Thomaselli and 119-pound Mike Gamble, tied for third in four-A competition with the Weir High Red Riders, who had their one champion in 138pound Ray Pernell, a junior. The Riders were without the services of 145-pound Tim Muscaro, their only undefeated wrestler. Both Weir and Brooke had 134.5 points to finish a place ahead of Oak Glen, which had led among the three after the first two rounds, but the Bears could not send any wrestler to the 138-pound championship, Ray Pernell of Weir met Rick Holliday of John Marshall. It looked like one of the tournament's best matches early in the first period, as both worked shoots, arm drags and fireman's and were countered as effectively. The period ended without a takedown.

Holliday got a quick reversal off a switch in period two, then Pernell got a reversal and near fall, and Holliday came back with a reversal in a quick series of tumbles. The score stayed tied at 4-4 until Pernell reversed and almost pinned Holliday after a quick stand up.

An illegal hold against Pernell made the score 12-5 in his favor, in the third period, the Holliday escaped to make it 13-6, which was the final score of the match. Pernell was Weir's only champ.

Dave Hess of Oak Glen beat oe Greschner of Wheeling Park, 6-5 for third place honors. Wheeling Central's Tim Bear Jim Barnhart off an arm drag in the first period of the third place bout at 145.
