bounds for Furman, guard Chris Bass had 14 points and guard David Stamey scored 11 points. Marshall played without starting forward Tyrone Phillips, who was suspended indefinitely for rules violations. "I was awfully pleased to have a 10-point lead at halftime because I didn't think that was a very pretty half," said Furman coach Butch Estes. "The only guy we had who played hard all night was John Taft," said Dwight Freeman, Marshall's coach. "If it weren't for John Taft, we would have gotten beat by 60," Freeman said. "We didn't play very hard and we didn't execute. It was one pass and a shot. "We tried to call timeout and get them settle down, but it just seems like we don't have any mental toughness," he said. "I've said that all year — we don't have the killer instinct."
