WELCOME

State Tournament participation is certainly the objective of all interscholastic participants. We know the motivation to do well in the spirit of good sportsmanship has prevailed on these fine athletes or they would not be representing their school and community in this State Tournament.

We should not forget to thank those individuals who make these type events "first class": coaches, officials, tournament directors, workers, and the many individuals who volunteer their time and talent for our youth.

Bill Hanlin,
Executive Secretary
WVSSAC

On behalf of the Board of Appeals of the West Virginia Secondary School Activities Commission it is my pleasure to welcome you to the State Wrestling Tournament.

Your support and involvement in high school athletics make events such as this possible. Many student athletes will have an opportunity to enrich their lives and extend their educational and athletic opportunities because of your support.

events such as this contribute many hours of hard work for the enjoyment and advancement of athletics. We would like to take this opportunity to thank them for this labor of love.

We would especially like to thank the fans, the schools, and communities for their support throughout the season. Without this support these student athletes could not have achieved this pinnacle of success.

"Bill Van Horne-A Patron of the Mats"

by Bill Welker, Wrestling Columnist

Wheeling News-Register * Steubenville Herald-Star * East Liverpool Evening Review
1981 and 1985 West Virginia Wrestling Sportswriter of the Year

William Frederick (Bill) Van Horne was born on March 9, 1921 in Martins Ferry, Ohio. He was the son of James F. and Adria McGlumphy Van Horne. Bill graduated from Martins Ferry High School in 1939 and then furthered his education at the National Journalism Institute of Northwestern University (Evanston, IL) on an academic scholarship.

Bill Van Horne began his brilliant career in writing as the Sports Editor for the TIMES-LEADER at Martins Ferry in 1941. After 25 years of service to the newspaper, Van Horne relocated to the WHEELING NEWS-REGISTER, again taking on the responsibilities of Sports Editor, in 1966.

In a sense, Bill Van Horne (always a sports editor) has never been "demoted or promoted" during his 44-year marriage to the fourth estate. Still, Van Horne's selfless contributions to the sports world through his reportorial skills, integrity, fairness, and insatiable desire to search for knowledge takes him far beyond being just another sports writer. The biographical sketch that follows will vividly demonstrate how much Bill Van Horne has given of himself to Ohio Valley Sports for over four decades.

To begin with, during the late 1949's and early 1950's Bill Van Horne broadcast play-by-play accounts of local football and basketball games on WTRF Radio (now WOMP). Furthermore, for five years Bill hosted the "Saturday Sports Page of the Year Show" on the same station. Likewise, he announced numerous OVAC and District Wrestling tournaments and also served as official scorekeeper for these events.

Now note: Bill Van Horne personally took charge of running the TIMES-LEADER Baseball League for 20 years. He was the originator of the "All Ohio Valley Track and Field Team" and has been selecting it since 1943. His end of the year "Thanks for the memories" column in the SUNDAY NEWS-REGISTER has received statewide recognition. Moreover, in 1978 Bill sponsored and has always edited N-R's weekly "Mat Talk" series, which is the first sports column devoted exclusively to wrestling in the Mountain State.

Needless to say, Bill Van Horne has received accolades of alpine proportions during his illustrious tenure as a sports scribe. Some of the more prestigious awards and honors include:

1972 WEST VIRGINIA SPORTSWRITER OF THE YEAR AWARD

MR. MAT AWARD FROM THE OHIO VALLEY WRESTLING COACHES ASSOCIATION

GENE MOREHOUSE MEMORIAL AWARD FOR CONTRIBUTIONS IN SPORTS WRITING THROUGHOUT WEST VIRGINIA

HONORARY CHAIRMAN OF THE 14TH ANNUAL UPPER OHIO VALLEY DAPPER DAN CHARITY SPORTS AWARD BANQUET

CHAIRMAN'S AWARD FOR THE ELBY'S DISTANCE RACE

TWO-TIME WEST VIRGINIA WRESTLING SPORTSWRITER OF THE YEAR AWARD WINNER

R.S. McKELVEY MEMORIAL AWARD FROM THE UPPER OHIO VALLEY DAPPER DAN CLUB

CALVIN GIFFIN TRACK AWARD

Throughout his sportswriting career, Bill Van Horne greatly valued the close friendships he has nurtured with athletic personalities on the local and national scenes. His most notable acquaintances include Joe and Phil Niekro, John Havlicek, Lou Groza, Tom Keane, Fred Bruney, Bill Mazerowski, and Bobby Douglas — two time Olympic Wrestler.

Even vacation time finds Bill Van Horne taking in a few sporting events. Further, he has a high interest in the performing arts, which includes the theater and symphony orchestra concerts. Bill reads constantly and is a walking encyclopedia of athletic memorabilia. Likewise, Van Horne has always prompted his journalistic associates to learn to spell, use the dictionary, and never stop seeking insights on sports at all levels.

Yes, Bill Van Horne's dedication to Ohio Valley athletics has traversed almost half a century — and because of his close associations and affection for the sport of wrestling, Bill Van Horne can truly be dubbed — "A Patron of the Mats."

A Tribute to Jim Snyder

By Ross Snyder
Of The Parkersburg News

Just one mention of the word "wrestling" turns Jim Snyder's memory into motion.

After covering the sport for more than 20 years, the former Sports Editor of The Parkersburg News loves to reminisce about the great wrestlers he watched and the valued friendships he developed during years and years of association with wrestling in the state of West Virginia.

"Back in the 1950s, I was the only newspaperman at the state wrestling tournament," Snyder said. "I remember covering the tournament in Morgantown when the number of participants exceeded the number the fans."

"They moved the tournament down to Parkersburg in the early 1960s and we started to pick-up coverage from the Charleston papers. Also, Bill Van Horne moved over to Wheeling from Martins Ferry (Ohio) and he was instrumental in developing coverage in the northern part of the state."

"As far as modern day coverage goes, I'd have to say that Carroll Jett is by far the best wrestling writer and also the most interested in it."

Snyder's love of wrestling grew because of the individual aspect of the sport.

"I just enjoyed the man-to-man thing," he said. "When that match starts, it's you against the other guy and there's no one else to bail you out."

"It's a fascinating sport," Snyder added. "I've seen some outstanding athletes and met some dandy coaches in my day."

Snyder's compassion for wrestling was enhanced by the many outstanding coaches he was fortunate enough to be associated with in the Mid-Ohio Valley.

"I was always very fortunate to have guys like Bob Dutton to work with," Snyder said. "What a superb job he did! He's probably had more individual champions than anyone in the state."

"And Rod Oldham, as a coach and individual, was unbeatable. I first met Oldham through football when I heard this growling outside and it turned out to be this bald-headed guy who sounded like a drill instructor. 'DI' (short for drill instructor) is what I've called him ever since."

Snyder added, "I don't think I've ever seen anyone get as much out of kids as Dutton and Oldham; they're very much alike in that respect."

"Their kids respected them, and because of that respect, gave 110 percent all the time. If there's such a thing as hero-worshipping among students and coaches, that's what they had."

According to Snyder, wrestling in and around the Parkersburg area has been successful because of the dedication among coaches from the Pee Wee ranks all the way through the high schools.

"We have fine Pee Wee programs here and also good junior high wrestling. The interest in wrestling is unbelievable, it's like a religion to some people."

Snyder added, "I was blessed during the time I was covering wrestling because we've always had good wrestling in the area."

Among the names that popped into Snyder's head when asked to remember the best wrestlers he had witnessed were: Larry Dupuy (3-time state champion at Charles Town) and teammate Vince Bracciale (who later became a jockey); Parkersburg's George 'Pancho' Nedeff (who won a state title as a junior and then lost in overtime as a senior); Jimmy Mattern (state champ in 1958-59); Joe Handlan Jr. (who replaced Dutton as wrestling coach at PHS); Pat Riggs (138-pound champ in 1968); Daniel 'Buddy' James (currently the football coach at his alma mater) and Paul Hoblitzell (who captured the heavyweight title in 1957 despite never weighing more than 167 pounds).

Among team accomplishments, Snyder cited Wirt County's championship in 1968 as one of the more memorable events during his sportswriting tenure.

"I remember that Wirt County was the smallest school to ever win a state championship. They didn't have any outstanding wrestlers (no individual champions), but they had enough quality to win it before the finals even started."

Snyder, 57, covered sports from 1951-1972. Since that time he has served as City Editor of The Parkersburg News.
